

Carrboro Connects

Community Workshop 1

November 19, 2020 | 7:00 – 9:00 PM

1. Welcome, Mayor Lavelle
2. Fred Joiner, Poet Laureate
3. #iamcarrboro photo & Who's here today?
4. Race & Equity Principles & GARE, Anita Jones-McNair
5. The Power of Planning A panel discussion among Carrboro Connects Task Force Catherine Fray, Chair; Quinton Harper, David Jessee and Tim Turner, Co-chairs; and Braxton Foushee, Planning Board, Moderated by Patricia McGuire
6. Perspectives – From Carrboro Connects Task Force Members: Wamiq Chowdhury, Amy Singleton, Mariela Hernandez, Mark Moshier
7. Overview of the Plan, Scott Goldstein
8. How to Engage in the Plan, Teresa Lockamy
9. Interactive Poll, Teresa Lockamy
10. Film Fest Video
11. Visit Carrboro Video
12. Break-Out Discussions
 - a. What are your hopes and dreams for Carrboro?
 - b. What are the greatest challenges facing Carrboro?
 - c. How important is it to you to have more affordable housing opportunities in Carrboro? What kind of housing is needed?
 - d. What are the most important things the Town and individuals can do to address climate change?
 - e. What are the best ways to encourage walking, biking and transit?
 - f. What are the best ways to support local and BIPOC businesses? What goods and services do you leave Carrboro to get?
 - g. How can Carrboro support more cultural inclusion across the arts and recreation? What additional park facilities are needed?
 - h. What did you learn from listening to others tonight?
13. Call to Action, Town Council
14. Closing, Catherine Fray